

Here is President Pilsudski of Poland, who in addition to being the President of the republic is also Field Marshal of the army.

One of the athletic events in Paris each year is the cross country race of the girl students from the various city schools. The girls are shown here just after the start of this year's race.

Miss Charlotte K. Demorest, who was the chairman of the "millinerettes" at the benefit for the Roosevelt Memorial House held recently at the Plaza Hotel. C Underwood & Underwood.

Premier Lloyd George and Premier Poincaré met at Boulogne-sur-Mer recently, and the ubiquitous photographer was present to make a pictorial record, shown here. Wide World.

Here is Sean McKeon addressing his constituents in Cork. He invited all those possessing guns to follow him if they wanted war. P. & A.

ene in Cuba, whence comes most of the sugar we eat and the good tobacco we smoke. The primitive native "rurales" give an excellent idea of the need of Americanization in the isle where Weyler once C Underwood & Underwood.

Above—Poland's White House in Warsaw bears a strong resemblance to our own in Washington. It is there that President Pilsudski lives.

This is Senora Rita Maria Gomez de Colli, daughter of President Alfredo Zayas of the Cuban Republic. The senora is at present on a honeymoon in this country. C Underwood & Underwood.

These are not mummers from "The Mikado" but genuine banjo players, who frequent the cherry blossom lined streets of Tokio, playing their queer melodies on moon shaped instruments.